Short description of the virtual component:

Two webinars on interdisciplinarity in ecological and sexual ethics will be delivered in collaboration with professors from partner universities. In addition, an online classroom will be established where students can share their research contributions exploring interdisciplinarity. Students from partner universities will be invited to provide constructive critical feedback on their peers' work. This approach will foster mutual understanding, encourage the exchange of ideas, and promote academic dialogue in preparation for the face-to-face meeting in Ljubljana.

Number of ECTS credits: 3 ECTS

The level of language competence that the student already has or agrees to acquire by the start of the study period is: English B2
