

Mediterranean Theological Meetings 2026

mediterranean theological meetings mediteranski teološki susreti

mtheological@gmail.com
www.mtm.hr

Proclaiming Peace Amid the Noise of War: Peacemaking in an Age of Militarism

At a time of new armed conflicts, growing fears, geopolitical tensions, and a renewed arms race, MTM seeks to explore how today's Christian and Muslim communities – especially in the Mediterranean, a region marked by centuries of encounters, conflicts, and dialogue – can bear witness to the message of peace within a culture shaped by fear and conflict. We wish to reflect on how to renew a spirituality of nonviolence, how to strengthen prophetic voices within religious communities and society, and how faith can inspire concrete gestures of reconciliation at a time when war is once again becoming an ever-present threat.

12—18/VII/2026

Archdiocese of Rijeka, Domus Laurana, Lovran

Applications: by April 15 via the form at <https://forms.gle/P8pyUM3exoavTPCU7>

Required documents: grades of the last academic year (students) and a motivation letter (all applicants).

Eligible applicants: Students in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th years of study; graduates of Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox, and Islamic theological faculties; postgraduate students in theology; graduates in theology and religious education teachers.

In order to enrich the school's theological reflection with ecumenical and interreligious openness, lecturers will include Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant, and Islamic theologians.

Lecturers:

Sihem Djebbi (Sorbonne Paris Nord University)

Bishop Grigorije Durić

(Serbian Orthodox Diocese of Düsseldorf and Germany)

Stipe Odak (Catholic University of Louvain)

Viola Raheb (Pro Oriente, Wien)

Place and accommodation:

Domus Laurana, Lovran, Šetalište M. Tita 124

For further information, contact us at:

mtheological@gmail.com